FEATURES OF INTEREST POINT 1-3

Leaving the car park via George Street you will pass a row of Victorian houses, Hawthorne Terrace. The rounded top windows in the houses were taken from an 1816 Methodist Church when it was demolished to be replaced by the present church. Turn right up the community centre footpath and walk past the old Wesleyan School and headmaster's house. Built in 1848 they predate the magnificent Methodist Church by 14 years. Check out the HERITAGE BOARD as you exit the church grounds for the history of Methodism in Snaith. Across the road from the church is Victoria House, a pub in mid 19th century, one of twelve in Snaith at that time. A little further on is Field House, a former boarding school.

POINT 3-4

As you travel out of Snaith you pass a number of large early Victorian houses reflecting the importance and wealth of Snaith in the early 19th century. Cowick Grange, on the right, was reputedly built by a local builder in the 1830s as a Valentine's Day present for his wife. Later the house became the property of the Hartley family who were local brewers.

POINT 4-5

The 7th Viscount Downe had a commitment to building churches and appointed the architect William Butterfield to design churches on his estates including this one at Cowick, consecrated on 12th October 1854. At the same time the Viscount built the adjacent school and nearby vicarage. The vicarage is across the road and the track alongside was the path the Cowick Hall servants would have taken to church. Between points 7-8 will give you the best view of Cowick Hall.

POINT 8

As you pass the gates to Cowick Hall in Lodge Lane take time to read the HERITAGE BOARD.

POINT 9

West Cowick was once a familiar place to Royalty, as you follow the road right into High Street, the small road off to the left, Little London Lane, was the main access road to the Kings Manor, a moated Manor House used by Kings from John through to Edward III. Edward II even used it as a centre of his governance for a time.

POINT 10-11

After reading the HERITAGE BOARD walk to Butt Lane, and you will see Ottley Cottages, the last remaining Alms Houses still in use today in Snaith.
